Women & Fiction 2: Short Stories by and about Women Susan Cahill, 1978

Gender and Short Fiction Jorge Sacido-Romero, Laura Lojo-Rodríguez, 2018-05-30 In their new monograph, Gender and Short Fiction: Women's Tales in Contemporary Britain, Jorge Sacido-Romero and Laura M Lojo-Rodriguez explain why artistically ambitious women writers continue turning to the short story, a genre that has not yet attained the degree of literary prestige and social recognition the novel has had in the modern period. In this timely volume, the editors endorse the view that the genre still retains its potential as a vehicle for the expression of female experience alternative to and/or critical with dominant patriarchal ideology present at the very onset of the development of the modern British short story at the turn of the nineteenth century.

Saving Women Frank Dewey Staley, 2021-02-10 This collection of stories contains an eclectic and often weird group of characters ranging across all walks of life and all sexual orientations. Often told with a dry wit, these stories are certain to make the reader look more closely at the every-day life surrounding us.

Women and Fiction Susan Cahill, 1975

Not All Women Wear Hot Pants, Some Carry Guns Kd Campbell, 2018-01-22 This book is a collection of 5 short stories, charged up with the energy of a woman scorned, a woman reborn, a woman realizing her power, a woman taking control, a woman seeking revenge and protecting the lives of the innocent. There is heat, murder, sex, vengeance and love all tightly rolled into its pages.

Women and Fiction Susan Cahill, 1975 From the late 19th-century writings of Kate Chopin to the contemporary works of Alice Walker, this unique collection of 26 stories celebrates the specialness of growing up female and captures the experience of being a woman--in all its similarities and diversity. Includes works by Willa Cather, Doris Lessing, Joyce Carol Oates, Gertrude Stein, Tillie Olsen, and Colette.

Women of the Century Regina Barreca,1993-01-01

Women & Fiction 2: Short Stories by and about Women ,1978

A Novel of Shorts: The Woman No One Sees Leah McNaughton Lederman,2020-02-09 These nine stories are pieces to a lenticular puzzle. Taken together, they reveal the story of Esther, the endearing but deranged cleaning woman. She exists after hours, in liminal spaces, continuously shrinking into the background even in this very book which tells her tale; she makes you wonder if she was ever even there. (She was.) Anywhere she cleans, Esther is sure to collect to find a keepsake for her collection, whether it's a memory, a keepsake, or just some dust. She'll make you think twice about what you leave behind.

Stories 4 Women Amy Higgins Artino, Ashley M. Ratcliff, Mary Scott, Rebecca Villaneda, 2010-11-02 Stories 4 Women, a collection of true short stories about the fairer sex, was created on an understanding that there is an unspoken solidarity that bonds us as women. However, we four writers felt it appropriate to give a voice to some of the stories unique to the woman's experience, including the ones that seldom are discussed in the open. They range from the somber situations of being the victims of sexual assault and the death of a loved one, to the more whimsical reminiscences about our teenage crushes and childhood tendencies. Think back to how you felt when you started doing things for yourself or when that guy who you thought was the one broke your heart. Remember when you took that long walk down the aisle and into your new life, or when you discovered that first stray gray hair sprouting from your head? These short stories go to show that regardless of age, race, political and religious affiliations, and background, we can all relate to the issues of womanhood. Stories 4 Women also shares insights into what enduring these experiences has molded us into: We are thoughtful, seasoned, refreshed, independent, accomplished, nostalgic, forgiving and self-assured women. These are our stories. These are your stories. These are stories for women.

Dear Clare - this is what Women Feel about Page 3 Clare Short, 1991 In 1986 Clare Short introduced her Private Member's Bill in the House of Commons to ban Page 3. The size of her postbag the following Monday morning and the vicious attacks on her in the tabloid press (The Sun even ran a Stop Crazy Clare campaign), made it clear that Page 3 pornography was a heartfelt issue for people of all ages, in all parts of the country and of all political persuasions.

Contemporary Women's Short Stories Susan Hill, 1995 Authors include Sylvia Plath, Janet Frame, May McCrory, Angela Carter, Nadine Gordimer and Margaret Atwood.

Women in Shorts Jenefer Heap, 2017-11-13 What's the best thing about being a woman in shorts? Is it the breeze behind your knees, or the freedom in your soul? Nineteen short tales of women aged two to ninety-two (not all of them wearing shorts). This is the second collection of short stories by Jenefer Heap, winner of Good Housekeeping Magazine's

Short Story competition and author of 'The Woman Who Never Did'.

Women's Friendships Susan Koppelman, 1991 A collection of twenty-one stories which portray the diversity, conditions, concerns, and support of women's friendships.

They Brought Their Women Edna Ferber, 1933

Contemporary Feminism and Women's Short Stories Emma Young, 2019-08-31 The short story has received renewed attention and notable popular acclaim in the twenty-first century. This book offers a wide-ranging survey of contemporary women's short stories and introduces a new way of theorising feminism in the genre through the concept of 'the moment'. By considering the prominent themes of motherhood, marriage, domesticity, sexuality, masculinity and femininity, this work engages with a spectrum of issues that are central to feminism today and, in the process, offers insightful new readings of the contemporary short story. Readers will find new perspectives on both canonical as well as lesser-discussed contemporary writers, including Kate Atkinson, Nicola Barker, A.S. Byatt, Aminatta Forna, Victoria Hislop, Jackie Kay, Andrea Levy, Hilary Mantel, Kate Mosse, Michèle Roberts, Ali Smith, Zadie Smith and Rose Tremain. While serving as a comprehensive introduction to the central themes of feminist politics, the study shows what makes the short story a desirable literary vehicle for creatively and critically contributing to feminist debates.

Between Mothers and Daughters Susan Koppelman, 2004 In this moving and poignant collection of short stories by a broad and vibrant group of American women writers, mothers and daughters describe their conflicts and consolations, their trusts and mistrusts, their loves and hates. In some stories, a mother sacrifices and struggles in order to provide her daughter with the opportunities she herself had been denied. In others, mothers and daughters share a renewed awareness of women's dependence on one another for survival. This multicultural collection of short stories written between the 1840s and the 1990s explores an ancient relationship with fresh vision and insight. Utilising a range of short story genres and incorporating diverse perspectives, these stories explore the maternal bonds between women and investigate the practice of family, exposing the complicated, bittersweet truths of women's intergenerational relationships.

Modernist Short Fiction by Women Claire Drewery, 2016-04-15 Taking on the neglected issue of the short story's relationship to literary Modernism, Claire Drewery examines works by Katherine Mansfield, Dorothy Richardson, May Sinclair, and Virginia Woolf. Drewery argues that the short story as a genre is preoccupied with transgressing boundaries, and thus offers an ideal platform from which to examine the Modernist fascination with the liminal. Embodying both liberation and restriction, liminal spaces on the one hand enable challenges to traditional cultural and personal identities, while on the other hand they entail the inevitable negative consequences of occupying the position of the outsider: marginality, psychosis, and death. Mansfield, Richardson, Sinclair, and Woolf all exploit this paradox in their short fiction, which typically explores literal and psychological borderline states that are resistant to rational analysis. Thus, their short stories offered these authors an opportunity to represent the borders of unconsciousness and to articulate meaning while also conveying a sense of that which is unsayable. Through their concern with liminality, Drewery shows, these writers contribute significantly to the Modernist aesthetic that interrogates identity, the construction of the self, and the relationship between the individual and society.
